

Nashville Classical Conflict of Interest Policy 2015 - 2016

1. Board members shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed, with prior approval, for any necessary expenses incurred by them in performing their duties as members of the Board.
2. Any contract with the school involving a member of the Board, the Board member's family, or the Board member's place of work shall be approved by the full Board with the interested member abstaining. Each Board member is responsible to make known to the Board any circumstances that could involve a potential conflict of interest.
3. Salary and other remuneration received from the school by ex-officio Board members shall not be considered a conflict of interest for the purposes of this policy. However, ex-officio members shall abstain from votes involving the level of such remuneration.
4. A full Conflict of Interest Policy containing Board Member signatures shall be on file at all times.

Signature:

Michael F. Lovett

Name:

Michael F. Lovett

Nashville Classical Conflict of Interest Policy 2015 - 2016

1. Board members shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed, with prior approval, for any necessary expenses incurred by them in performing their duties as members of the Board.
2. Any contract with the school involving a member of the Board, the Board member's family, or the Board member's place of work shall be approved by the full Board with the interested member abstaining. Each Board member is responsible to make known to the Board any circumstances that could involve a potential conflict of interest.
3. Salary and other remuneration received from the school by ex-officio Board members shall not be considered a conflict of interest for the purposes of this policy. However, ex-officio members shall abstain from votes involving the level of such remuneration.
4. A full Conflict of Interest Policy containing Board Member signatures shall be on file at all times.

Signature: Judith S. Price

Name: Judith S. Price

Nashville Classical Conflict of Interest Policy 2015 - 2016

1. Board members shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed, with prior approval, for any necessary expenses incurred by them in performing their duties as members of the Board.
2. Any contract with the school involving a member of the Board, the Board member's family, or the Board member's place of work shall be approved by the full Board with the interested member abstaining. Each Board member is responsible to make known to the Board any circumstances that could involve a potential conflict of interest.
3. Salary and other remuneration received from the school by ex-officio Board members shall not be considered a conflict of interest for the purposes of this policy. However, ex-officio members shall abstain from votes involving the level of such remuneration.
4. A full Conflict of Interest Policy containing Board Member signatures shall be on file at all times.

Signature:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Christian Paro", written over a horizontal line.

Name:

Christian Paro

Nashville Classical Conflict of Interest Policy 2015 - 2016

1. Board members shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed, with prior approval, for any necessary expenses incurred by them in performing their duties as members of the Board.
2. Any contract with the school involving a member of the Board, the Board member's family, or the Board member's place of work shall be approved by the full Board with the interested member abstaining. Each Board member is responsible to make known to the Board any circumstances that could involve a potential conflict of interest.
3. Salary and other remuneration received from the school by ex-officio Board members shall not be considered a conflict of interest for the purposes of this policy. However, ex-officio members shall abstain from votes involving the level of such remuneration.
4. A full Conflict of Interest Policy containing Board Member signatures shall be on file at all times.

Signature:

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Jane Emma Meneely".

Name:

Jane Emma Meneely

NASHVILLE
CLASSICAL CHARTER SCHOOL

Nashville Classical Conflict of Interest Policy 2015 - 2016

1. Board members shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed, with prior approval, for any necessary expenses incurred by them in performing their duties as members of the Board.
2. Any contract with the school involving a member of the Board, the Board member's family, or the Board member's place of work shall be approved by the full Board with the interested member abstaining. Each Board member is responsible to make known to the Board any circumstances that could involve a potential conflict of interest.
3. Salary and other remuneration received from the school by ex-officio Board members shall not be considered a conflict of interest for the purposes of this policy. However, ex-officio members shall abstain from votes involving the level of such remuneration.
4. A full Conflict of Interest Policy containing Board Member signatures shall be on file at all times.

Signature:

Miranda Christy 8/28/2015

Name:

MIRANDA CRISTY

Nashville Classical Conflict of Interest Policy 2015 - 2016

1. Board members shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed, with prior approval, for any necessary expenses incurred by them in performing their duties as members of the Board.
2. Any contract with the school involving a member of the Board, the Board member's family, or the Board member's place of work shall be approved by the full Board with the interested member abstaining. Each Board member is responsible to make known to the Board any circumstances that could involve a potential conflict of interest.
3. Salary and other remuneration received from the school by ex-officio Board members shall not be considered a conflict of interest for the purposes of this policy. However, ex-officio members shall abstain from votes involving the level of such remuneration.
4. A full Conflict of Interest Policy containing Board Member signatures shall be on file at all times.

Signature:

Dawn Cornelius

Name:

Dawn Cornelius